

I am writing to ask that the FCC not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. During the time this law has been implemented it has lessened the telemarketing calls my household receives to nearly zero. It is so nice to not have to worry about harassing phone calls all hours of the day and evening. It is an excellent law and I am very happy with its results. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,
Christine Rust